Discover this stunning house with a mill in Felanitx, a true architectural gem with its distinctive stone faade that evokes the magic of Quixote mills. With 210 m² of interior space spread over a single floor, this property offers comfort and versatility. From the moment you enter the property, a private path lined with a beautiful garden guides you to an open area that you can customize according to your desires for outdoor recreational activities. Once inside the house, a welcoming stone foyer with wooden beams welcomes you and provides a place to leave your belongings before comfortably exploring the interior. Turning to the left, you'll enter a spacious living-dining room, a perfect space for gatherings with friends and family, as well as moments of relaxation. The separate kitchen, adjacent to the dining area, offers ample storage space to ensure comfort while cooking. Just next to the dining area, you'll find two adjacent bedrooms, one lar...
