Imagine waking up each morning in your own personal paradise, nestled in a picturesque village on the Costa Brava. We present to you a unique opportunity to make this dream a reality. This charming house, tucked away in the tranquil village of Cabanes, is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. With 150 square meters of space and a private patio, this house offers a generous canvas for you to customize to your hearts content. Its two-story structure allows you to arrange the space as you see fit, creating the perfect environment for your second home. But thats not all. Picture yourself savoring your morning coffee in your private garden or gazing at the stars from your terrace on warm summer nights. All of this can be yours. Moreover, if you prefer a starting point for your project, we have a renovation plan that might interest you. However, the real beauty of this house is the freedom it offers you to express yourself and design every corner t...
