Charming farmhouse completely renovated for rural tourism with 4 apartments with wonderful views of the mountains. A place where the sunsets are endless, where you breathe pure and fresh air, where you live surrounded by mountains, and you can walk in a natural environment. During morning time, be amazed by the sunrise, which is a spectacle worth seeing. The property is located in front of the church of San Miguel and located a few steps from one of the most interesting points, the Mirador square, where you can enjoy splendid views of the whole region and part of the Segarra. Fors is located in the northern part of the region of Conca de Barber, on the top of a hill, at one of the ends of the Tallat mountain range and has a special charm with its windmills, always moved by the force of the wind. All houses would retain a uniform aesthetic, using natural stone on the facades, which gives harmony to the whole municipality and gives the place a ...
