When you arrive at Calle Ramón Llul in Castalla, you are welcomed by its peaceful pace and the convenience of having everything close at hand. You open the door, park in your own spacious and quiet garage, and the day changes gear. At the back, a room with a fireplace invites you to stay. It is that versatile refuge where winter birthdays are celebrated, with a small kitchen for snacks and impromptu dinners and a toilet that makes everything easier. Take another step and the outdoors takes centre stage: a large terrace with an awning, the table set, the scent of fruit trees and a lawn where children invent worlds and adults find peace. Here, life happens without haste.~~You go up to the first floor and the light follows you. The south-facing living-dining room opens onto a continuous balcony with an awning, perfect for reading, having coffee or letting the breeze in during the summer. Comfort is guaranteed: natural gas radiators that embrace eve...
