From the moment you step inside, the house envelops you. The soft echo of your footsteps on the natural stone, the warm aroma of wood crafted by artisans, the light that streams in through the skylight and glides across the high ceilings... everything invites you to breathe in the calm and enjoy the silence. In La Romaneta, very close to La Romana and just 30 minutes from Elche, stands this unique 389 m² home, built with soul and using fine materials that convey history and authenticity. The stone and wood finishes, combined with Climalit windows facing four directions, allow natural light to caress every corner and fresh air to refresh every room. Its completely open-plan ground floor, with an integrated kitchen, invites you to share moments: the murmur of conversation, the crackling of a fireplace, the feeling of home at every family gathering. Upstairs, six bedrooms and two bathrooms offer rest, privacy, and the pleasure of waking up to th...
